25X1 8. [] LIAISON Spoke with John Schaefer, GAO, and set up a meeting with [] OSI, on chemical warfare for 11 November at 10:00 a.m. 25X1

9. [] LIAISON Spoke once again with Ronald Kienlan, OMB, to inform him that we would proceed to draw up another paper for them outlining in more detail our objections to the draft Executive Order revising E. O. 10450. Mr. Kienlan said this would be fine and per my request said that a letter from the General Counsel at OMB would be sent over formally requesting additional information from us. 25X1

10. [] CONSTITUENT Took a call from Ken Rossi, on the staff of Representative Bill Frenzel (R., Minn.), regarding a constituent's request for information on alleged CIA relationships with foreign services. Mr. Rossi referred to a Washington merry-go-round column the constituent had submitted. Rather than respond orally to the questions raised by the constituent, I requested that Mr. Rossi forward the letter to us in order to provide him a more thoughtful and appropriate response. 25X1

25X1 11. [] LIAISON In follow-up of her call to [] EA/DCI, spoke with Celia B. Niemi, Executive Secretary to Senator Ted Stevens (R., Alaska), and told her that we would be able to pull together some unclassified material on China for the Senator. It was agreed that we would deliver the material to the Senator's office and Mrs. Stevens would in turn deliver it to the Senator in Alaska. 25X1

25X1 12. [] LIAISON Called Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, at his home, and discussed with him the request by the Department of Justice for Agency material pertaining to [] (See Memorandum for the Record.) 25X1

25X1 I told McConnell that the Director, James Lilley, NIO/China, and myself would be meeting with Senator Milton Young (R., N. Dak.) on Thursday, 4 November, at 10:30 a.m. I also told McConnell that I would have [] deliver to him the paper he wanted on the number of people on the Intelligence Community staff.

11. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Contacted Dave Hulett, ~~OMB~~, regarding the status of procedures to implement P.L. 94-472, the International Investment Survey Act of 1976, which might impact indirectly on Agency operations and collection. Mr. Hulett initially was somewhat surprised that the Agency was interested in this law, but agreed it would be a good idea to send us a copy of the draft Executive Order under preparation by OMB which would implement this law and would spell out the authorities and procedures whereby information on foreign investment in the U.S. and on U.S. investment abroad would be collected, analyzed and reported. Mr. Hulett expected the draft Executive Order would be ready for comments within two to four weeks and promised to have the CIA included as a recipient.

12. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Called Tom Moore, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask him for a letter from Bill Miller, Staff Director of the Committee, authorizing Moore's examination of all Agency materials on [REDACTED] I discussed this previously with [REDACTED] SA/DO/O, and [REDACTED] Moore said he would have such a letter to me by the first of next week.
